The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Blessed Trinity, the love between the Father and Son. After Jesus ascended into heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit on Mary, His Mother and the apostles. Through tongues of fire He showered them with gifts. These gifts include wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord.

Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Over these final weeks of the Church's liturgical year, our attention turns toward consideration of "the last things", or eschatology. Over the centuries, but especially in recent times, some Christians have used various Scriptural texts to try to "scare the devil" out of others. Each week, when recite the Creed at Mass, we profess our belief in the coming of the Day of the Lord. We cannot hasten or postpone that day, nor should we fear it. Faith and love of God cannot be based on fear. We should not interpret passages like today's gospel as dire threats of punishment, but rather as assurance that God is ever faithful and loving and that His kingdom will ultimately prevail.During this Month of All Souls we especially pray for all of those who have died... who have experienced "the last things"...that they may enter into the fullness of God's kingdom.And we pray for ourselves that we may grow in the love of God...living the faith, practicing charity, and tending to our legitimate human needs...as we hopefully, not fearfully, await the coming of the Day of the Lord.

On our civil calendar this Wednesday we observe Veterans' Day. At the eleventh hour on the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918 the armistice ending the First World War went into effect. This day was known as Armistice Day until 1954 when President Eisenhower signed a law officially designating November 11 as a day to celebrate all veterans of our nation's armed forces. Over the years, in wartime and peacetime, millions of American men and women have served their country nobly and heroically, keeping our country safe and preserving our precious freedoms. To all of our veterans, a grateful nation thanks you for your service!

On Friday the Church honors the first American citizen to be canonized, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. She was born in Italy in 1850 and as a young woman began to work in an orphanage in Cadogno, Italy. She professed vows as a Missionary Sister of the Sacred Heart there in 1877 and became prioress a few years later when the orphanage was closed. From the time she was a young girl, Frances desired to be a missionary in India but at the urging of Pope Leo XIII, she instead came with six other sisters to the United States to work among the rapidly growing Italian immigrant community in New York City and eventually became a naturalized U.S. citizen. She and her sisters experienced many disappointments upon their arrival including great difficulty in securing a facility to open their first orphanage in the U.S. The Archbishop of New York encouraged her to return to Italy but that only made her more determined than ever. Over the last 35 years of her life she established 67 institutions in cities across the country including New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, New Orleans, Denver, and Seattle, dedicated to caring for the poor, the sick, the abandoned, and the uneducated. She saw first-hand that many Italian immigrants were becoming disconnected from their faith so she labored hard to establish schools and adult education classes.And, even though she was deathly afraid of drowning, she made the trans-Atlantic crossing by ship more than 30 times to bring more sisters and to secure the necessary resources for her order's work. She was 67 when died of malaria three days before Christmas 1917 while preparing Christmas candy for the children at her order's hospital in Chicago.

At her canonization in 1946, Pope Pius XII said of Mother Cabrini, "Although her constitution was very frail, her spirit was endowed with such singular strength that, knowing the will of God in her regard, she permitted nothing to impede her from accomplishing what seemed beyond the strength of a woman."May our spirits be endowed with that same singular strength as we continue to do the work of Christ among our brothers and sisters. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, pray for us!

Childcare Volunteers for Grandparents Raising Grandchildren (GRG)

GRG is an outreach and ecumenical ministry started in 2018 between St. Cecilia/Sacred Heart and Trinity Lutheran. This ministry was founded to help grandparents "raising" their grandchildren and has grown to about 85 members. GRG has monthly meetings that alternate between St. Cecilia/Sacred Heart and Trinity Lutheran. The meetings include dinner, a speaker for the grandparents and childcare for the grandchildren during the speaker's presentation.

We currently have 2 volunteers who plan and provide materials for the childcare activities. However, given the broad range of ages and number of grandchildren, there has become a need for additional childcare assistance. Should you have an interest in assisting with childcare at our monthly meetings, please contact Holy Family's (734-539-9751) or St. John's (724-537-8909) parish office. Clearances required

Lord God, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful on this Veteran's Day of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Saint John the Evangelist
125TH ANNIVERSARY
HISTORY OF OUR PARISH

WE WILL CONTINUE SHARING HISTORY OF OUR PARISH THROUGH THE END OF THE YEAR!

Although in the 1970's there is no listing Of a Ministry Of Care, St. John parishioners have, since their early beginnings, reached out to help others. About 20 Eucharistic Ministers were pictured in the directory when Father Dan Mahoney was pastor. Ministers received training to take the Eucharist to the homes Of those unable to regularly attend Mass. Other ministry "tasks" were keeping in touch with the sick and elderly via phone calls and greeting cards. Remembering them at Easter when names of "shut- ins" were tied to pussywillow branches (provided by Jim Noel) was a way to involve more parishioners. At Christmas, poinsettias and gift bags full of puzzles, toiletries, candies, even socks, were distributed to those not regularly seen in the pews.
