We are fortunate at Holy Family to have the option to give weekly to our parish through online giving through Our Sunday Visitor! The amount donated each week through this online service is reflected in our offertory announcements each week. This safe and secure method of giving also offers parishioners the opportunity to donate to our "second collections" such as our Church's Heat/Air, Christ the Divine Teacher School, and the Diocesan Catholic Accent. To give online for our weekly offertory, or to donate to our "second collections" please scan the included QR code. This will take you directly to our OSV online giving . Any questions, please contact the parish office! Thank you for your continued and generous support of our parish!

PRIESTLY VOCATIONS
DIOCESE OF GREENSBURG

CALLED BY NAME
INVITING OTHERS TO CONSIDER GOD'S CALL

IDENTIFYING FAITHFUL YOUNG LEADERS

Do you know when you see a young Catholic and think, "Wow, he would be a great priest!" or "She would make a great sister!" Now you can let the Vocations Office know by submitting a form on the website.

GreensburgPriest.org/Called

What happens when you submit a name?

1. Father Bandura will send them a letter of encouragement.
2. The Vocation Office will invite them to events.
3. The Vocation Office will offer gentle support as they discern their vocation.

Thank you for being the voice of Christ!

RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS "The bread of God is that which comes down from heaven." Reflect upon the sacred nature of the divine bread and contemplate if He is calling your child to the priesthood or consecrated life. Did you know that fostering vocations starts at home? To find out more information, reach out to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

OCIA In it's earliest days, Christianity was known as "The Way." This meant following the way Jesus had taught and demonstrated as love of God and love of neighbor. One who hates is not a follower of Jesus' way.

St. Jerome once said, "The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom." Each week our Scripture readings at Mass give us much to reflect upon, not only during the homily or for the time we are at Mass but throughout the week. It is a good spiritual practice for all of us to spend some time in prayer and reflection with the Sunday readings throughout the week and this week is certainly no exception.

Beginning last Sunday and continuing through August, we are taking our triennial diversion from the Gospel of Mark to contemplate chapter 6 of the Gospel of John, known as the Bread of Life Discourse. Following the feeding of multitude (last Sunday's gospel reading), the crowd seeks out Jesus after he departs from the place. In today's gospel reading, they demand that Jesus perform another sign: "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do?" Jesus uses this moment to teach, to draw his audience into a true understanding of what he has done. Here is one way to think about the challenge that Jesus lays down: "Do not labor for perishable food and temporal achievement. Strive for food that has value for eternal life. If all your effort, skill, and prayer end in just sustaining your physical existence, life will perish when the body dies. Strive, rather, for bread that nourishes the whole person, food that brings eternal life—food I will give you." [2021 Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word, LTP, p. 228] Let us take some time this week to reflect upon the challenge of Jesus to "believe in the One sent by God" and what that means for us his disciples.

As parishioners at St. John are already aware, our long-time organist, Lawrence Demangone, has retired without fanfare in his typically humble, quiet fashion. On behalf of the parish, I thank Lawrence for his years of faithful ministry to the parish and wish him all the best in his retirement. I am grateful to the organists who have been helping out at St. John over the summer as we look to make more permanent arrangements.

At Holy Family, we are preparing for Sandy Sutton's retirement later this month. We have interviewed several candidates to fill the parish secretary's position. I hope to be able to announce Sandy's successor in the very near future.

On Tuesday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. We also hear the account of the Lord's Transfiguration on Mount Tabor from one of the evangelists every year on the Second Sunday of Lent; in that context, this glimpse of the Lord's glory prepares his disciples for his coming passion and death. The readings and Mass prayers on this feast emphasize the glory of Jesus, who is one with God; it is a glimpse of the glory in which the Church will one day share [2011 Sourcebook for Sundays and Seasons, p 261].

The origins of the feast can be traced back to the Church in Syria in the fifth century and it was placed on this date for the whole Church in 1457 by Pope Callistus III to commemorate the announcement in Rome of an important naval victory over the Turks in the Balkans. That is certainly not a very pious or noble reason for the placement of a significant Church feast but the date also has theological and liturgical resonance as it comes forty days before the Feast of the Exultation of the Holy Cross (Sept. 14) and, according to tradition, the Transfiguration occurred forty days before Good Friday.

2024-2025

Faith Formation & Confirmation Prep

We are excited for a new year of faith learning at Holy Family & St. John!

Our programs are an integral part of a child's sacramental preparation. Through FF (grades K-6) and Confirmation Prep (grades 7-8), students build upon the formative religious education received at home and in previous years and prepare to receive the sacraments with their fellow Holy Family and Saint John classmates! This holy environment of learning and communion with one another is created by our outstanding and qualified catechists who are ready to share this new year with you and your child!

Requirements for receiving the sacraments at Holy Family & Saint John

First Reconciliation & First Holy Communion

Students enrolled in public, private, or home schooling must register and attend FF ideally beginning in first grade, but no later than second grade, to receive both sacraments in second grade.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Students enrolled in public, private, or home schooling must register for Confirmation Prep in seventh grade and attend for seventh and eighth grade to be confirmed in eighth grade.

FAITH FORMATION DONATIONS FOR 2024-2025 YEAR

Our FF program is in need of some new supplies for the upcoming year!

16 or 24 ct. Boxes of Crayons
10 ct. Boxes of Thin Markers
Small Glue Sticks

If you are willing to donate some of these supplies, please place items by the basket by the candle shrine.

Monetary donations are also a welcome gift, and go towards supplies, educational materials, and activities for our students!

Monetary donations can be placed in collection basket in an envelope marked "FF."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!!

REGISTRATION KICKS OFF NEXT WEEK!

For more info or questions about Faith Formation or Confirmation Prep, contact our Director of Faith Formation, Jody Taylor at jtaylor@dioceseofgreensburg.org or by calling the Holy Family parish office at 724-539-9751

Join Us For OCIA! A Journey of Faith Begins

Are you or someone you know interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is starting at the end of August. We invite you to embark on this transformative journey with us!

WHAT IS OCIA?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults is a process through which non-Catholic adults can learn about the Catholic faith and, if they choose, prepare for the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. It's also a wonderful opportunity for baptized Catholics who have not received all their sacraments or who simply want to deepen their understanding of the faith.

WHY JOIN OCIA?

- Discover the Richness of the Catholic Faith: Learn about teachings, traditions, and sacraments that form the foundation of our faith.
- Spiritual Growth: Deepen your relationship with God through prayer, study, and community.
- Community Support: Journey with others also seeking to grow in faith, supported by our parish community.

Start Date: August 25th (First Meeting)

Location: Holy Family Parish

Time: 11:45 AM- 1 PM

For more info or to register, please contact Deacon Mike at morange@dioceseofgreensburg.org

Happy Retirement

SANDY SUTTON

We thank you for your many years of service to Holy Family Church!

We appreciate your hard work, dedication, friendship, and support. Your love for this parish community was felt through everything you did. And everyone who walked through our doors was blessed by you and your kindness.

We pray for God's presence to be with you in this new season. And we ask Him to bless you with good health, joy in abundance, and peace in heart and mind!

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy." -Luke 25:23

All parishioners are welcome to sign the card at the back of the Church for Sandy on the weekend of August 10th & 11th!

Spiritual Accompaniment Ministry

Do you have questions about how God works in your life? Would you like to explore your relationship with God? Holy Family parishioner Peg Mulcahy is a qualified Spiritual Director and is available to meet and share this journey with you. Sessions usually last an hour, once a month, and offer a quiet space for considering God's presence in your life. Please contact Peg at 724-875-8691 or mgtmulc@comcast.net
