The Sanctuary Lamp Burns For Michael Picadio
By Her Sister, Pat

Thank you for all you provided for the Celebration of the Life of Michael Picadio.
St. John was her beloved Church and we're so happy we could honor her there. A lovely place for a sendoff! You all were a blessing!
Sincerely, Pat Koloskee

A Call to Serve! Our beloved parish could always use more dedicated volunteers to serve as Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Altar Servers. In these roles, you will have the profound honor of participating directly in the sacred liturgy and helping to bring the presence of Christ to our community. Whether you are distributing the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming the Word of God, or assisting at the altar, your service is a powerful witness of faith and love. Thank you for your prayerful consideration! Please call the parish office if you feel called to serve.

In your charity of prayers, please remember
Saint John parishioner Joseph R. Martin, Sr.
who passed away recently

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.*

OCIA Pentecost Sunday celebrates the beginning of the Catholic church. On this day the Holy Spirit descended upon Mary and the Apostles bringing many gifts including knowledge and the courage to preach the Good News (Gospel) to all the world.

The Illusion of Fruitfulness – The Lesson of the Fig Tree

In the Gospel of Mark (11:12–14, 20–21), Jesus approaches a fig tree in leaf, hoping to find fruit. From a distance, it looked alive—lush, green, full of promise. But as He draws near, He finds nothing but leaves. No fruit. And Jesus, in a moment that startles many readers, curses the fig tree. The next day, it is withered to its roots.

This passage is not about Jesus being impatient or angry; it is a profound parable about appearances, authenticity, and the urgency of true conversion. The fig tree represents more than just a plant—it reflects the human heart. Too often, we too are like that fig tree: vibrant on the outside, giving off the image of faithfulness and fruitfulness, while inside we are barren, disconnected, and spiritually dry.

How often do we put on a show for the world—smiling, serving, attending Mass, saying the right things—yet inwardly we are far from Christ? From afar, others might think we are thriving spiritually. Our lives might look well-ordered, our faith seemingly strong. But Jesus does not judge from a distance. He draws close. He looks under the leaves. He searches for the fruit.

This Gospel challenges us to examine our hearts. Do we give off the appearance of holiness while neglecting prayer? Do we seem generous, yet live selfishly when no one is watching? Do we speak about forgiveness, but harbor resentment? Do we proclaim faith, but live as though God is distant?

The world may be fooled by outward appearances. Our friends, family, and even our parish community may think we are doing just fine. But Jesus knows. He sees what no one else sees. And we cannot deceive Him.

The cursing of the fig tree is not a punishment—it is a prophetic warning. A wake-up call. Jesus desires that we bear real fruit: love, patience, mercy, humility, joy, and faithfulness. Fruit that nourishes others. Fruit that glorifies the Father. He tells us in John 15:8, “By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.”

But fruitfulness cannot happen without roots—roots deep in prayer, in the sacraments, in Scripture, in charity, and in a personal relationship with Jesus. Without those roots, we may look alive, but we are spiritually withering.

This Gospel calls us to integrity. It calls us to examine whether we are merely wearing the leaves of faith—or whether we are truly alive in Christ, rooted in His love, and bearing the fruits of the Spirit.

Jesus is walking toward you today. He is drawing near your heart. Will He find only leaves? Or will He find fruit?

Let us not settle for a life that merely looks good from a distance. Let us be real. Let us be fruitful. Let us be faithful—not just in appearance, but in truth.

Blessings,
Deacon Mike

Starting in Late June: Baptisms During Mass

In late June, there will be a logistical change to the Rite of Baptism, moving from after Mass to being celebrated during Sunday Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. This change is not just a shift but a profound opportunity to connect the sacrament of Baptism with the heart of our Catholic faith—the Eucharist. By celebrating Baptisms during Mass, we emphasize that Baptism is the gateway to the Church. The presence of the entire parish community makes this moment richer, reminding us all of our shared responsibility in nurturing the faith of these new members.

It is through the support and prayers of the Church that the grace of Baptism is fully lived out. Witnessing this sacrament during Mass allows the whole community to renew their own baptismal promises, reflecting on the life of grace that unites us as the Body of Christ. This integration underscores that we are not alone in our faith journey but walk together, strengthened by one another and by God's grace.
