Anointing Mass

Introducing a quarterly Anointing of the Sick Mass that will rotate between parishes beginning

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH 10 AM AT ST. JOHN

"This sacrament gives the grace of the Holy Spirit to those who are sick: by this grace the whole person is helped and saved, sustained by trust in God, and strengthened against the temptations of the Evil One and against anxiety over death. Thus the sick person is able not only to bear suffering bravely, but also to fight against it. [Pastoral Care of the Sick #6]

All are welcome to come and receive the graces of this beautiful sacrament!

OCIA One of the distinctions between Catholic and other Christian denominations is that Catholics are called to love their enemies, to will their good. No other religion calls on followers to love their enemies.

God Never Asks You To Do The Impossible...

A hard statement to believe because it seems in our eyes, he is asking us to do the impossible. To live a Holy life, to forgive people that you truly hate. Yes, a harsh word "hate" but for some it is very true. To stand firm in your faith even when people look down on you or avoid you because of it. It seems so easy to give in to the world's influences. You convince yourself it is ok, and after a while you don't give it another thought. Gregory of Nyssa (330-395 AD), an early church father wrote: "God never asks his servants to do what is impossible. The love and goodness of his Godhead is revealed as richly available. It is poured out like water upon all. God furnishes to each person according to his will the ability to do something good. None of those seeking to be saved will be lacking in this ability, given by the one who said: 'whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ, will by no means lose his reward.'" Do you allow the love of Christ to transform your heart that you may treat your neighbor with kindness and mercy? The Spirit will move you if you are open to it. So what you believe is impossible is God getting you to open your wings. He is stretching them so you can soar like the eagle soars. He is our maker who knows better what you are capable of. Don't dismiss what seems impossible. Look at it in a new light.

Prayer can be one way to help us through the impossible moments in our lives. The saints have some important things to teach us about prayer. According to St. Cyprian, "If He Who was without sin prayed, how much more ought sinners to pray!" St. Ephrem advises us, "Do nothing at all unless you begin with prayer," and St. Teresa of Avila informs us that "You pay God a compliment by asking great things of Him." However, she also warns us that we're not really praying unless we try to remember to Whom we're speaking, and try to remain focused on what we're saying. St. Paul of the Cross instructs us, "Remain in the presence of God. . . . Rest in His bosom, like a child on its mother's breast, with full and deep confidence," and St. Jane Frances de Chantal advises, "Follow your own way of speaking to the Lord: sincerely, lovingly, confidently, and simply, as your heart dictates." This advice was followed by St. Therese of Lisieux, the Little Flower, for she said, "I tell God what I want quite simply, without any splendid turns of phrase, and somehow He always manages to understand me."

That's why you pray and ask God for his supernatural help. God told Jeremiah, who lived at the same time as Daniel: "Call to me and I will answer you. I'll tell you marvelous and wondrous things that you could never figure out on your own"

As we live our lives ask Him to show you that all things are possible with God and know that He is with you always in those impossible...possible moments.

Blessings,
Deacon Mike

Parish Ministry & Volunteer Spotlight!

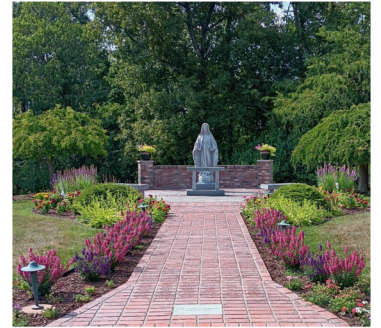

Our parish ministries and volunteers are a gift! Every prayer, act of service, event, and moment offered through ministry and volunteering is a reflection of the heart of Christ. We are deeply grateful for all who give their time and talents in service to our parish family and community.

We want to highlight a different ministry and group of volunteers each week- to shine a light on the people and efforts who help make our parish and community flourish!

This week, join us in thanking....

St. John Our Lady's Garden Committee

This beautiful area of our grounds is planted and maintained by members of this Committee. This dedicated group meets after Easter to purchase and plant flowers. Then groups of 2-3 members volunteer on a rotating basis to maintain the garden over the summer. This garden is utilized often by members of our parish and community for a peaceful place of prayer, and we are so thankful to our Garden Committee!
