OCIA What place does Jesus hold in our lives? He requires that He be first. This does not mean that we are to love family and others less, but that our first love be of Him. We are called to love Him with our whole being.

A call from the Bishop's Office at this time of year is always a mixed blessing...

◆ I think most everyone is aware by now of Deacon Mike's reassignment by Bishop Kulick. Deacon Mike has been assigned to Holy Family since his ordination in 2015 and has been serving at St. John since my arrival in Latrobe in the Summer of 2023. I have enjoyed working with him over these past three years and I will miss his insights, pastoral awareness, and wit. St. Sylvester's gain is our loss. We will have the opportunity to wish Deacon Mike well on the weekend of July 18-19. Keep watching for more details.

◆ While I was disappointed to learn of Deacon Mike's reassignment, I was much happier to learn that as Deacon Mike moves on, we will be welcoming Deacon Mark Ferlin to our partner parishes, effective July 7. He is concluding his assignment at Ss. Simon & Jude Parish in Blairsville and Church of the Good Shepherd in Kent (my first pastorate back in the '00s). You will get a chance to meet and get to know him over the coming weeks.

A much more unpleasant surprise came crashing through the ceiling in the Divine Artwork Center at Holy Family on the morning of June 17. There was a water main break on Chestnut Street near the rectory that disrupted water service for the rectory and the Divine Artwork Center. A crew from the Latrobe Municipal Authority was on scene quickly to make repairs and restore service. However, when the line was repressurized, it caused a failure in a drainpipe on the second floor of the Divine Artwork Center, flooding part of the first floor. The cleanup and drying out of the affected areas is ongoing and repairs will then have to be scheduled. The Adoration Chapel is unaffected but some meeting rooms are not going to be useable until repairs are completed. Alternative arrangements are being made for any groups or meetings affected.

As I mentioned in my column two weeks ago, we need to work on this summer in both parishes' Parish Pastoral Councils. Bishop Kulick as directed that each parish in the diocese is to have a pastoral council, the mission of which is "...to serve as the forum in which pastors and the lay faithful gather on a regular basis to discern those pastoral and spiritual issues affecting peoples' understanding and ability to live out their baptismal call in their daily lives, and to recommend effective responses to these issues."

The Pastoral Council should consist of a minimum of six lay members but ideally 8-12. Membership should be sensitive to the diverse makeup of the parish community including age, sex, socio-economic conditions, race, etc. Members must be fully initiated Catholics, registered members of the parish, in full communion and in good standing with the Catholic Church and:

- Demonstrate a willingness to work for the mission of the Church and the Diocese.
- Be conversant with the lives and issues of people and groups living in the region served by the parish.
- Have a willingness to focus on the mission of the parish as a whole, and not a specific interest representation.
- Have the disposition to learn and ability to engage in prayer and spiritual methods utilized in the parish council.
- Have a basic understanding of parish and diocesan structure.

St. John does have an active pastoral council of five members that typically meets on the second Tuesday of the month. Holy Family does not have a functioning pastoral council. So I would ask parishioners of both parishes to take to prayer our parishes' needs for this important ministry. If you feel you may be called to this ministry or if you would just like more information about what is involved, please contact me.

With joy and thanksgiving to God, the Diocese of Greensburg announces that Bishop Larry J. Kulick, JCL, has called Mr. Mario Porreca to be admitted to Candidacy for Holy Orders. Bishop Kulick will confer the Rite of Admission to Candidacy within Mass at 11:00 AM on Sunday, July 26 at St. Anne Church, Rostraver. As some Holy Family parishioners may remember, Mario did a summer assignment here several years ago. Please keep him in your prayers as he continues his formation.

THE HOLY FAMILY & SAINT JOHN PARISH OFFICES WILL CLOSE AT NOON ON THURSDAY, JULY 2ND AND REMAINED CLOSED FOR FRIDAY, JULY 3RD.

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY! MAY GOD BLESS OUR GREAT COUNTRY!

What a week we had at VBS 2026 in the Changemakers Lab! Campers learned that grounded in God's love, everyone can make a difference! They enjoyed faith lessons, delicious snacks, outdoor activities, wonderful songs, impressive crafts, and spending time with God and one another! And we wrapped the week up with a skit and lunch with the campers' families! Campers also responded to the needs of others and "changed the world for the better, one kind act at a time!" $210 for Action for Animals and MANY items for the Holy Family Food Pantry and Latrobe Food Pantry were collected throughout the week. Thank you for your generosity! THANK YOU to everyone who gave their time, talent and support to make VBS a success! See you next year!

Are you interested in becoming

Catholic?

Have you ever wondered about the Catholic faith? Are you thinking about becoming Catholic, completing your Sacraments, or simply learning more about what the Church teaches?

We invite you to attend our OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) Information Session on Sunday, July 19th at 12 PM in the Divine Artworks Center.

Whether you are beginning to explore the faith, have been attending Mass and want to take the next step, or know someone who is interested, this session is a welcoming opportunity to learn more. There is no obligation. Just come, listen, ask questions, and discover where God may be leading you.

The Catholic faith is more than a set of beliefs; it is an invitation into a life-changing relationship with Christ and His Church. If you have been feeling a desire to learn more, this may be the perfect opportunity to take that next step.

THE FOURTH HISTORICAL INSTALLMENT

Rev. Francis Kruk was appointed pastor on December 5, 1935. A capable administrator, he tackled the parish's heavy debt, deteriorating buildings, and depleted treasury. Before returning to Homestead in 1937, he reduced the debt, began needed repairs, and restored the church's finances.

In April 1937, Rev. Brislaus E. Mieruniski assumed leadership of the parish. His optimism, generosity, and strong interest in Latrobe's youth quickly earned him the trust and affection of parishioners, as well as the respect of the broader community. Under his guidance, the parish grew into a close-knit and effective congregation that advanced steadily. The parish debt paid off, and both the church and rectory were repaired and remodeled.

After 20 years, the school reopened under the Felician Sisters, serving 108 children in grades 1 through 8. The parish grew to 200 families. Father Mieruniski also organized the Holy Name Society and revived the nearly extinct Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. His 25 years at St. John the Evangelist honored its past and strengthened confidence in its future

Magnificat

A Ministry to Catholic Women

Greensburg Magnificat Breakfast

Debra Iwaniec's spiritual journey has been one of unfailing faith and hope against a backdrop of devastation. Debra and her husband, Ken, had their lives changed forever when their son, Kenton, a PA State Trooper, was killed by an impaired driver. Since that day, Debra and her family have paid tribute to Kenton through a tireless campaign to spare other families from the unnecessary pain they have endured. Debra's message is one of hope amidst unimaginable pain. By following our Blessed Mother's example of surrendering to God's will, she has experienced a multitude of God's blessings and the Holy Spirit's comfort and strength. Her story is a testament to God's unending love.
