As we look forward to a new season, we want to remind parishioners of the change to our Daily Mass schedule for the summer. Beginning Wednesday, May 27th the 9 AM Daily Mass at Holy Family will change to 8 AM, and remain 8 AM until September. A reminder will be posted when the Daily Mass time will change back to 9 AM in September.

Anointing Mass

We are blessed to offer quarterly Anointing of the Sick Masses that rotate between parishes

SATURDAY, MAY 30TH 10 AM AT HOLY FAMILY

"This sacrament gives the grace of the Holy Spirit to those who are sick: by this grace the whole person is helped and saved, sustained by trust in God, and strengthened against the temptations of the Evil One and against anxiety over death. Thus the sick person is able not only to bear suffering bravely, but also to fight against it. [Pastoral Care of the Sick #6]

All are welcome to come and receive the graces of this beautiful sacrament!

OCIA Pentecost is the official birthday of the Catholic Church. The Holy Spirit descended upon Mary and the apostles under the form of tongues of fire. The Spirit filled them with courage such that they began to evangelize resulting in the baptism of about 3000 (Acts 2:41)

Set Your Heart on Fire Again...

Pentecost is not just a story about what happened long ago in an upper room in Jerusalem. It is about what is happening right now within us. The same Holy Spirit that descended upon the Apostles like tongues of fire has been poured into our hearts through Baptism and strengthened in us through Confirmation. We are not empty people trying to survive life alone. We are temples of the Holy Spirit. The fire of God lives within us. And yet, many Catholics live as though that fire has gone out.

We come to Mass, we say our prayers, we carry burdens silently, but deep inside there can still be fear, anger, loneliness, addiction, resentment, or hopelessness. We believe in Jesus, but we often live disconnected from His Spirit. Pentecost calls us to wake up. The Spirit of God is not meant to remain buried under routine or distraction. The Holy Spirit is alive, moving, speaking, healing, and calling us into something greater.

Before Pentecost, the Apostles were hiding behind locked doors. They were afraid. Confused. Uncertain about the future. But when the Holy Spirit came upon them, everything changed. Fear became courage. Weakness became strength. Silence became proclamation. Those ordinary men went out into the world transformed because they finally allowed the Spirit of God to move through them.

That same transformation is possible for us.

The tragedy is not that God has stopped speaking. The tragedy is that we have stopped listening.

The Holy Spirit whispers in the quiet moments of our lives. He nudges us to forgive when we want revenge. He calls us to pray when we would rather scroll endlessly through distractions. He asks us to trust when anxiety takes hold. He pushes us to love when bitterness feels easier. But too often we resist. We cling to control. We hold onto sin. We keep Jesus at a safe distance because true surrender can be frightening.

But the will of Jesus is not meant to imprison us. It is meant to set us free.

When we truly connect ourselves to the Holy Spirit through prayer, the sacraments, Scripture, and silence, something begins to change within us. Our hearts soften. Our eyes open. We begin to see people differently. We become less concerned with ourselves and more concerned with the suffering around us. We stop asking, "What do I want?" and begin asking, "Lord, what do You want of me?"

That is where real life begins.

The world does not need more Catholics who simply identify with the Church. The world needs Catholics who are on fire with the presence of God. Catholics whose lives look different because they have encountered Jesus deeply. Catholics who forgive radically, love boldly, serve humbly, and trust completely.

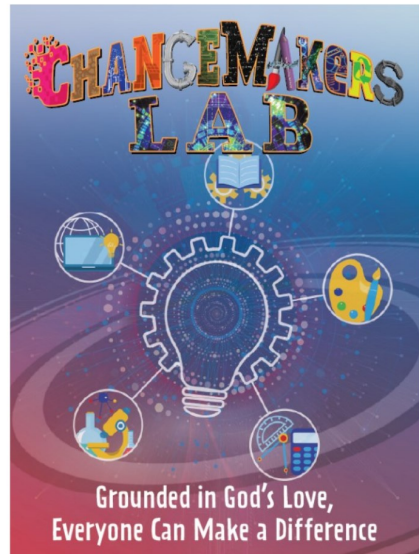

This Pentecost, do not settle for a lukewarm faith. Open your heart fully to the Holy Spirit. Ask Him to break what is hardened, heal what is wounded, and awaken what has fallen asleep within you. The Spirit is ready to move. The question is whether we are willing to let Him.

Blessings,
Deacon Mike

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES!

Lord, we ask You to pour out Your blessings upon each graduate! Guide their steps as they move forward into new opportunities and challenges. Grant them courage to follow Your will, wisdom to make good decisions, and compassion to serve others with joy. Help them remain rooted in faith, strong in hope, and generous in love. And may the light of Christ shine through all they do! Bless their families, teachers, friends, all who have supported them!

2026 Diocesan Lenten Appeal

We are abundantly blessed at Holy Family and Saint John! Every year, the faithful of our parishes give so generously to the Diocesan Lenten Appeal!

Holy Family Parish Goal is $130,000 This will allow us to do our fair share for the diocesan campaign and return over $51,000 to the parish which will allow us to upgrade the locks on the doors of the church and rectory to a more secure electronic system and to repair the small handicapped lift in the Divine Artwork Center.

St. John Parish Goal is $44,000. This will allow us to do our fair share for the diocesan campaign and return over $12,000 to the parish which will allow us to upgrade the handicap entrance into our parish hall and address some of the other deteriorating entry doors into our parish center.

Thanks to everyone who has already made a pledge or gift! Please prayerfully consider your pledge or gift in the coming days. You may return your pledge or gift by mail, in person during office hours, or drop it in the collection basket. You may also follow the QR code at the top or click the donate link on our website.

Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

June 3 -11

United States
Conference of Catholic Bishops

This Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus draws its daily devotions from the Litany of the Sacred Heart.

Each day reflects on the wisdom of saints and pontiffs on the Sacred Heart and offers opportunities for prayer and action, framed by Pope Francis' encyclical Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us) and Pope Leo XIV's apostolic exhortation Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You).

The novena concludes with the consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Saint John the Evangelist
125TH ANNIVERSARY

HISTORY OF OUR PARISH

FROM NOW UNTIL OCTOBER, WE WILL HIGHLIGHT THE HISTORY OF SAINT JOHN IN OUR BULLETIN! FOLLOW ALONG AND LEARN SOMETHING NEW!

Where it all begins...

In the early 1890s, many Polish families immigrated to Latrobe and the surrounding communities of Southwestern Pennsylvania. Their principal places of worship were St. Vincent Archabbey and Holy Family Church.

Despite being uprooted from their native land, these families clung tenaciously to their language, customs, and Catholic faith.

Under the leadership of Nicholas Rynkowski, a group of faithful Polish miners pursued a dream of establishing their own parish. After three years of meetings, soliciting contributions, and enlisting the help of local priests, they achieved their goal in 1901. The abandoned Christ Reformed Church at the corner of Main and Alexandria Streets in Latrobe was purchased and named St. John the Evangelist. The church was dedicated October 27, 1901.
